

Phonics Fundamentals© for Tutors

SLD
READ

Course content includes:

- language-based learning disabilities
- brain research
- processes related to language development
- Orton-Gillingham approach
- multisensory instruction techniques
- alphabetic and phonemic awareness strategies
- the three-part drill for structured review
- tactile/kinesthetic spelling techniques for phonetic and non-phonetic words
- syllabication for multisyllabic words
- lesson planning for 1:1 lessons

For more information, contact:

Kalamazoo: Contact Heidi Turchan
at hturchan@sldRead.org
or 269.345.2661

Grand Rapids: Monica Crumback
at mcrumback@sldread.org
or 616.361.1182

Big Rapids: Suzanne Finney
at sfinney@sldread.org

This course is required for all SLD Read prospective tutors. This course is also open to home-schooling parents, elementary educators, reading specialists, special educators, paraprofessionals and other individuals who work 1:1 with struggling readers or are interested in Orton-Gillingham techniques.

Materials include:

- Phonics Fundamentals Teacher Guide and Student Lessons
- Phonological Awareness Activities and Manipulatives
- Drill Deck cards
- Formatted Lesson Plan Templates
- Many other multisensory tools and ideas!

There is no course fee for SLD Read Prospective Tutors.

Others: $745 per person

Visit our website for more information on becoming an SLD Read Tutor or other SLD Read Professional Development courses in all SLD Read areas.

Our mission is threefold:

- we help individuals with dyslexia, learning differences, and other reading challenges to develop lifelong language skills through our multisensory program
- we assist educators to identify learning challenges and provide training and techniques to enhance their reading curriculum
- we increase community awareness and understanding of literacy issues